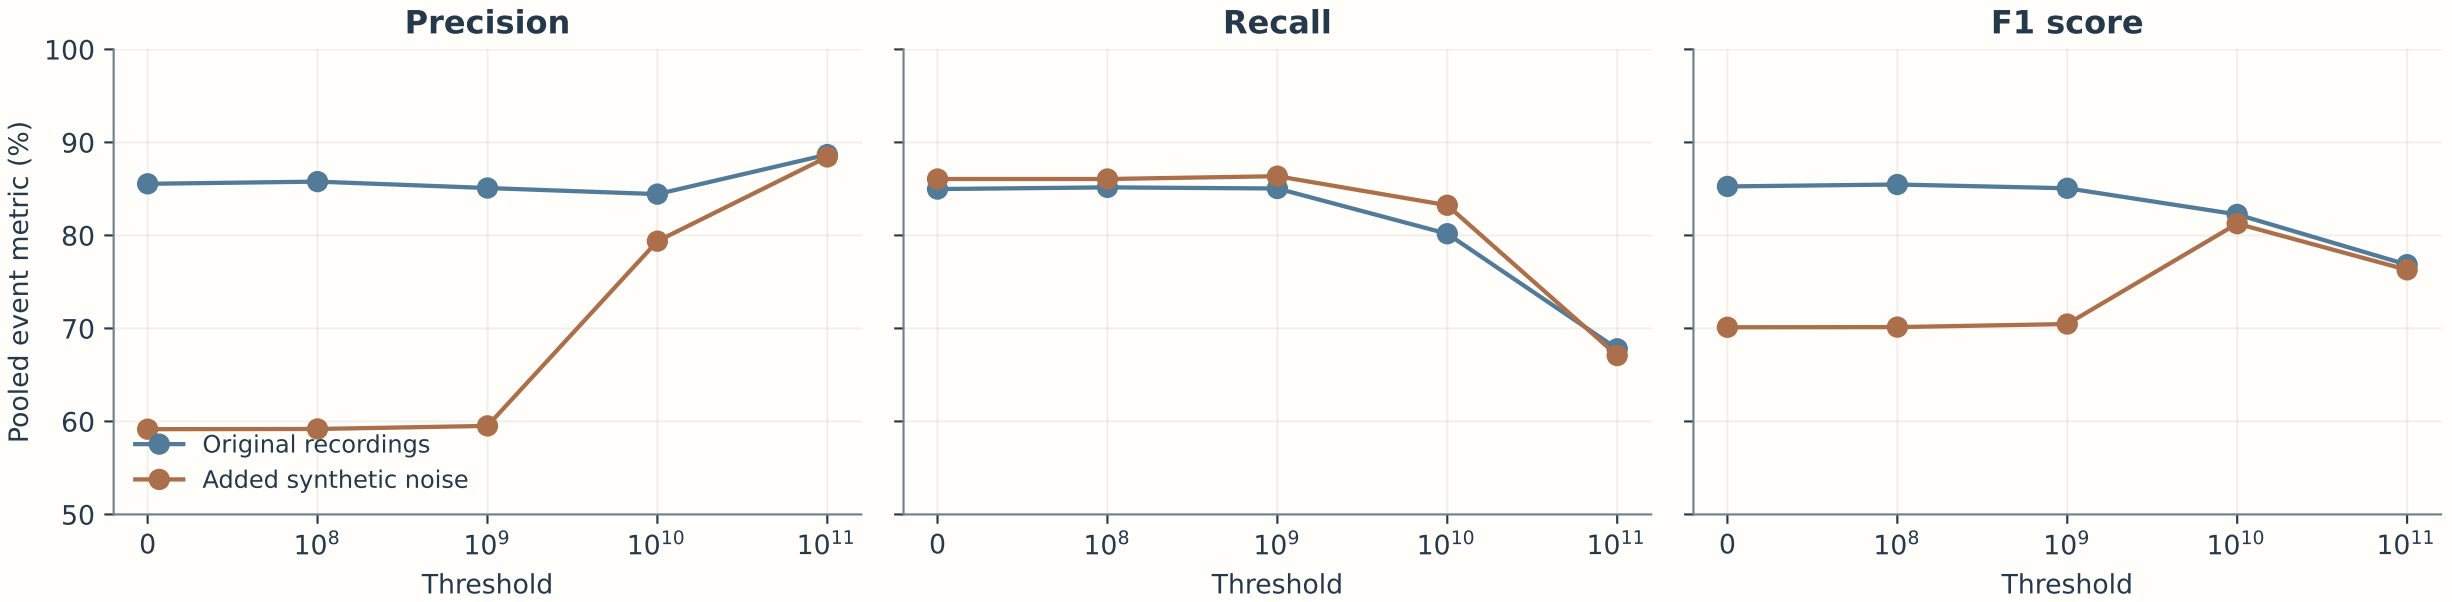
An improved F1 score does not mean every true step survived



Four evaluation participants, three gait activities. No retuning of the detector between routes.